

Buttal directly contradicted the statement of Mrs. Neighbors on the stand that Virginia Happe and Missed Wheeler Hot Springs last August. Immediately Brady announced his intention of having a warrant issued for her arrest. The assistant district attorney, who was Assistant District Attorney Fitzgerald presented it in superior court he found that not only had Note McQueen preceded him with a valid request, but that she had been released on his heels was Attorney Charles H. Brennan of defense counsel, voicing verbal protests. By one the superior judges turned down the warrant.

Last night Brady acted on his own initiative. He ordered the arrest of Mrs. Neighbors. Again McNab went into action and emerged victorious. He arranged for her to be taken to the county jail, where she was released on her $2000 cash bail furnished by McNab.

If Franklin Had Gone

A Step Further

In the development of his octagon shaped lenses he would have created the Colonial lens the latest fashion to find great favor with eye-glass wearers. Shaped like Franklin's famous lenses, but rimless, and set in an unostentatious mounting, the Colonial lens is by far the most, inconspicuous that years of untiring energy have been able to develop.

Any Chinn-Beretta store will be glad to show you the Colonial, the pinnacle of perfection in optical lens production.

Baptist Educator Dies in Pasadena

PASADENA, Nov. 30.—Dr. Augustus Hopkins Strong, president emeritus of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Rochester, N. Y., and one of the most eminent theologians and educators of the Baptist denomination, died here yesterday, aged 85 years. Death followed quickly after a blood transfusion, which had been resorted to in preparation for an operation.

Koreans in Serfdom, Arms Envoy States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 (By the Associated Press).—Twenty millions of Koreans are being reduced, to political and economic serfdom, by Japan, Dr. Philip J. Schuyler, vice chairman of the Korean commission to the arms conference, asserted in an address.

CLOCK'S HANDS RACE MERRILY ON CAMPANILE

BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—At 9 this morning the hands of the Campanile clock stopped, and as a result many students didn't start to their classes. The ringing of the chimes at the hours was the only proof to the students and professors that academic time was passing until noon today, when the clock made up several hours in a few minutes.

At noon the hands started racing through the hours and the collegians hurrying home to lunch stopped and cheered. Past 5, 10 and 11 the hands ran; then hesitated at 12, and had to back up several minutes.

The electrical connections from the master clock in the tower had become crossed during the night, and university electricians worked all morning straightening out the time.

A monument to human perfidy, treachery and greed," he said.

GUARD HEADS OF NINE STATES IN SESSION IN S. F.

Adjutants General of Ninth Corps Area Assemble to Plan Co-operation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—In an effort to secure closer co-operation between the National Guard Regular Army and organized reserve actual work of the conference of adjutant-general of the states of the Ninth Corps area was under way here today. The session was called to order at 10 o'clock in the conference room of Colonel Robert H. Noble at the Presidio.

At noon Colonel Noble entertained the visiting officers at a luncheon at the bachelor officers' mess. The afternoon's meeting began at 2:30 and problems confronting units both of the regular army and national army in the Ninth Corps area were threshed out and tentatively solved.

STATES INCLUDED

Adjutants-general of the states included in the area—California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming, arrived here yesterday to attend the conference and were officially welcomed by Major-General Wright, corps commander, in the conference room of the army headquarters.

In his address of welcome to the visiting officers General Wright emphasized the need of a "one harmonious army spirit" among the members of the three components of the United States Army—the National Guard, the Regular Army and the organized reserve. Preparations are now being made for a parade and review of National Guard units in the civic auditorium tomorrow night.

TOMORROW'S PROGRAM
Tomorrow there will be a session in the conference room at 10 o'clock, with luncheon at the St. Francis hotel at 12:15. The conference will be resumed again at 2:30 and the National Guard review will be held at the auditorium at 8:30 that night. There will be morning and afternoon conference sessions, Friday, and ceremonies in honor of Marshal Foch Saturday.

The visiting adjutants-general follow:
General J. J. Boiree, California.
General L. V. Peck, Idaho.
General L. Esmay, Wyoming.
General Maurice J. Sullivan, Nevada.
General George A. White, Oregon.
General V. G. Williams, Utah.
General Maurice Thompson, Washington.
General Charles H. Sheridan, Montana.

FILIPINOS PLOT TO RAISE TURK FLAG IN LANAO

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 30.—Hauling down the American flag, hoisting the Turkish flag in its place, and driving out all American and Christian Filipinos were parts of an alleged plot by certain Moro datus in Lanao province, island of Mindanao, according to a communication received today by the director of non-Christian tribes, whose headquarters is in Manila.

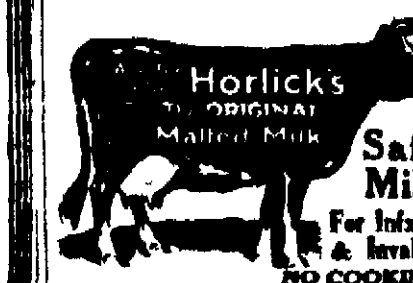

Alaoya Alonto, who signs himself "Sultan of Raman," makes the charge, and the communication is signed by twenty-five other sultans. It dates, ten rajahs, one hadji and more than three score other Moros, who are followers of Mohammedanism.

"We Moros are trying to do all we can in learning from our Christian Filipino brothers, except the eating of pigs, which is forbidden by our religion, for we know that they are far better than we are," writes the Sultan of Raman. "The agreement of Datu Amal Manabilland with Datu Amal Binaning to do foolishness caused the death of the latter. We, the sultans of Lanao, will be very glad if all those old datus are killed, as they are hindering the progress of our province and well as the whole Philippines. The aim of their agreement was not only to drive out the Christian Filipinos, but also the Americans, because they want the Turkish flag to be raised over Lanao and the Turks to take the place of Americans and Christian Filipinos."

The sultan says the young datus desire that compulsory attendance of public schools should be ended in Lanao province notwithstanding the opposition of the old datus, who fear that the public school teaching will alienate their girls from the Mohammedan faith.

MRS. GREEN'S SYSTEM

"My advice, Mrs. Murray, is to get the best at all times. My husband has succeeded in business because he's dressed as he should be, and my daughters always have pretty, up-to-date frocks, too. Really, if we had to save up and pay cash for everything, I don't know what we'd do. Our system of buying clothes is simply this. Every month a little out of the pay check goes to Cherry's, and that insures stylish clothes for us all whenever we need them. Their things are reasonable and the only way they differ from other stores is in their easy way for paying for things." Cherry's store for women is at 515 13th street; the men's store 528 13th street—Advertisement.

Report.

BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—That citi-of Berkeley withhold their claim of the municipal collection arbage system until a full investiresult of the Berkeley Defense result of action taken at a meet-last evening.

The following resolutions were of the garbage situation was made by a committee composed of H. Gastman, E. Q. Turner and J. Pemberton:

Resolved: That in view of the fact steps are being taken to call a referendum on the municipal collection of garbage, the Berkeley Defense Corps asks the citizens of Berkeley to refrain from signing petition for a referendum election, putting the city to an unnecesary expense, until after a full fair investigation which the Berkeley Defense Corps undertakes to suband until a fair trial of munici-collection has been had.

The carpenters will drive the last nails into the San Carlos speedway tomorrow. The completed racing bowl will then be turned over to the drivers, who are beginning to flock into San Francisco preparatory to the opening of the speedway on Sunday, December 11.
On this mile and a quarter track
Jack Prince claims that new world records will be hung up. Jack and the speedway management and the drivers, too, will please the thousands who intend to see the race if they inject half a dozen restful into the opening afternoon's sport.
This idea of trying to break records on a wooden track may serve some purpose, but often it fails to give the multitude a chance to cheer.
A close race, with the winner in doubt up to the last lap, even though the average speed for the distance may not exceed 100 miles, has a lot more jazz to it for the crowds than will an event in which the winner

FRED KOHL GIVES BULK OF ESTATE TO MARION LORD

Banker Who Killed Himself Leaves $250,000 to His Estranged Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—Under the will of C. Frederick Kohl, millionaire of San Francisco and Burlingame, who shot and killed himself at Del Monte last week, approximately $450,000 of his $500,000 estate is left to Mrs. Marion Loderback Kohl, who is living at the Curtis hotel. The will also provides that Kohl's widow receive $50,000 cash, or $1000 a month until death or remarriage.
Mrs. Lord was formerly the wife of Arthur Lord of New York City, and since the time of his separation from his wife, five years ago, she had been known in society circles as Kohl's closest friend.

Mrs. Lord and her mother were staying at the Del Monte lodge at Pebble Beach at the time of Kohl's suicide. A short time before they had accompanied Kohl to Lake Tahoe, where he was taken ill.

AGREEMENT MADE.
The provisions for Mrs. Kohl, it is set forth, are according to a separation agreement which was entered into on November 22, 1916.
Included in the bequests to Mrs.
Lord is the $300,000 Kohl mansion at Burlingame, built by Kohl for his wife and himself a year before they separated. The office building at Montgomery and California streets was also left to Mrs. Lord, as well as $250,000 in cash, Kohl's personal belongings, and the remainder of the estate with the exception of sixteen smaller bequests.
It is stated that there will probably be a contest, although an obstruction to such action is seen in the fact that Kohl's estate was no community property and also in the fact that the Kohls had entered into a separation agreement. It is said, however, that a contest, if brought, might be based upon the assertion of undue influence upon Kohl's mind.

LESSER BEQUESTS.
Mrs. Kohl at the present time is the guest of Mrs. Malcolm Whitman, formerly Mrs. Jennie Crocker.
Attorney M. F. Michael of San Francisco filed the will for probate in the superior court of San Mateo county. Frank G. Drum, San Francisco capitalist, and Alan W. Ma-ginnis, manager of the Kohl estate, were named as executors.

The lesser bequests include $50,000 to Maginnis, $25,000 to Miss Marion Dunlap and Miss Reda Dunlap of Philadelphia and numbers of bequests to charitable institutions, friends and acquaintances.
The stock event, preceding the big race will have several contestants who will be appearing on a board track for the first time and though these stock cars may not show better than 80 miles an hour, it's an even bet they'll provide as many thrills as will the professionals who whirl around the oval faster than 100 miles per hour.

MURPHY AN S. F. FAVORITE.
Jimmy Murphy ought to have quite a following of cheer makers from the Mission when this former San Francisco boy is in action. Murphy will give De Palma competition for popularity. The Italian is the favorite with the crowd just as Barney Oldfield was in other days, and the majority of folk will pull hard for Ralph to get under the wire first.

Officials named for the first race include William T. Sesson as referee; Paul Derkum of Bakersfield, starter, and Les Manning of Oakland as assistant starter.
WAGNER SHOULD BE STARTER.
To the writer's way of thinking, the speedway management erred in not selecting Fred Wagner as starter of the races. Wagner is known throughout America as the peer of all starters and he is so far ahead of any others that comparisons are unnecessary. Next to Wagner comes Manning of Oakland. The latter, with more experience, will be equal to Wagner in time.

R. C. Durant has issued a statement saying that the loss of his name was absolutely unauthorized in connection with Durant's supposed participation in the stock car race. The speedway management circulated a story that Durant would drive one of the new Durant Sixes. Now comes Durant's denial.
An announcement is expected within a day or two saying where tickets may be bought in Oakland for the December 11 contests.
STORK VISITS HATTON HOME.
There is joy in the Hatton family and all the buttons on the vest of Leonard Hatton are gone.
Mrs. Hatton is the proud mother of a six-pound boy, which arrived Thanksgiving Day. Mother and son are doing nicely and father, though he hasn't done so, promises to buy clothes for the gang.
Hatton is manager of the Walter

Mrs. Schumann-Helink will visit the training and chorus work. Luncheon

U. C. STUDENTS CATCH DOGS FOR "FOOD TESTERS"

BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—The new "dog run" of the home economics department at the University of California has been completed, and a number of unlicensed dogs which roam the college grounds. Students in the department have been appointed to catch the animals as a part of their prescribed work, and so far have met with success.
The reports from the neighborhood are that the animals seem very contented with their new positions, and that no nuisance has been caused by their barking.
The diseases caused by over-eating and by the use of improper foods will be investigated by the students. The dogs face some chance, but they are assured of having plenty to eat.

Ladies' Aid Society

ALAMEDA, Nov. 30.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church will sponsor a two-day bazaar at the church assembly rooms Thursday and Friday. A cafeteria luncheon and dinner will be served on both days. In the evenings a free entertainment will be featured.
The Presbyterian Bazaar, under the charge of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary, will be held in that church, Friday. The men's club will also assist. Mrs. W. A. Cundall will be general chairman.

LIFE IS SWEET IN GOOD HEALTH

Weak Blood Causes
Baffling Feeling of Exhaustion

There is nothing so sensational as living in the glow of good health, and nothing so empty as existing in the bleakness of disordered health.
There is the direct testimony of medical and ordinary experience to prove that Gude's Pepto-Mangan restores poor blood to its natural healthy state. Physicians know its value and have prescribed it for years. Tens of thousands of men and women and children rely upon it. Pepto-Mangan revives blood which has grown thin and weak and which has left its mark on the complexion and the disposition. Features hardened by sour feelings soften into a pleasant expression. The sensation of living—tasting, breathing, seeing the colors in sunshine, smelling the perfume of flowers, relaxing in the sweet refreshment of sound sleep—everything is enjoyed with intensity.
It is red-blooded living. Gude's Pepto-Mangan has the name on the package and is sold by your druggist in liquid or tablet form. Advertisment.

ALBANY VOTES ON RECALL SATURDAY

ALBANY, Nov. 30.—With Saturday set as the day for a special election to decide whether, or not Winslow Vierra, city clerk, should be recalled from office, a warm political campaign is drawing to a close in Albany.
Aligned against Vierra are the members of the board of trustees of Albany, headed by Mayor O. C. Marr; who charges the city clerk with incompetence and negligence of duty.
Vierra in turn classifies the board and its followers as a "political machine" desirous of controlling affairs in the city.
Only one candidate opposes Vierra for election, John H. Paul, at present Albany recorder. Sample ballots were received by Albany voters yesterday on which arguments were given for and against the recall of Vierra.

TROUSERS WITH $1000 HIDDEN; THIEF FOILED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—
The favor of the Goddess of Good Fortune was shown today to Nicola Ghigliune of 347 Bryant street, who had just withdrawn $1000 from the bank and who was visited by a burglar and discovered his money safe, and articles of negligible value missing.
Ghigliune had intended sending the $1000 to Italy today. He placed it in a pair of old trousers and hung them behind the door of his room. The burglar, evidently familiar with his intention and his possession of the money, entered during his absence last night. In order to allow for a quick getaway the intruder on entering left the door wide open. In this manner the trousers were concealed between it and the wall, and escaped his searching eyes. Everything else was piled into, but the object of his quest although handing almost in view, remained undisturbed, and he left with loot valued only at $1.50.

SCIENCE CHURCH OFFICERS APPEAL CASE TO COURT

Trustees Ask Resignations Be Accepted and Successors Appointed.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BOSTON, Nov. 30.—A petition asking the supreme court to permit Herbert W. Eustace and Paul Harvey to resign as trustees of the Science Church Publishing Society was filed late yesterday by Sherman L. Whipple and Lothrop Withington, counsel for the trustees.

The trustees also ask the court to appoint their successors and to authorize them to transfer the trust property in their hands to such new trustees. They petition the court to approve their accounts and discharge them from all further responsibility in connection with the trust. In a statement announcing that this action had been taken, counsel for the trustees said:

"The failure of the attempt of the trustees to co-operate with the directors in the appointment of their successors is due to an inability to agree on the method by which the trust should be handed over. The present trustees felt that the inventory of property, valued in excess of a million dollars, should be submitted and examined by the directors before their resignations were submitted and successors appointed. The directors were unwilling that this course should be pursued."

The court took under advisement motions by counsel for the directors that orders be issued putting the court's decision into effect and that the injunction restraining the directors from interfering with the business of the publishing society be dissolved.

A bazaar which is attracting the interest of Welsh residents in the bay region, will take place Friday throughout the day and evening in Jenny Lind hall, Twenty-third street and Telegraph avenue. The affair will be given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Welsh Presbyterian church.

Christmas gifts of every variety will be on sale. It is announced. Dinner will be served from 5:30 until 7:30 p. m. A musical program will follow. The public is invited.

Benefit Planned For Organ Fund

A "rainbow" bazaar for the benefit of the organ fund will be given tomorrow night, Friday and Friday night at the First Baptist church, Berkeley. The affair will open with a chicken dinner at 6 o'clock tomorrow night.

Children's dresses, aprons, smocks, bibs, towels, pillow slips, dresser scarfs, breakfast sets, table runners, hand-painted china, comforters, Christmas cards, home-made cakes, candies, jellies, jams and preserves will be on sale.

Christmas Programs Are Being Arranged

Preparations for musical programs even more elaborate than those characterizing Christmas services last year, have begun in practically all Eastbay churches. In large churches, wherein the music will be rendered by vested choirs and augmented choruses, and in the small houses of worship, where volunteers will sing, in the chapel or in the mission, the message will be the same—the Christmas messages of hope and love and good cheer.

MENNONITES WILL ABANDON CANADA AND MOVE SOUTH

Emigration to North Mexico Expected to Be Initiated Soon by Sect.

SASKATOON, Sask., Nov. 29.—Much-heralded exodus of old colony church Mennonites from western Canada to northern Mexico is to become a reality, for arrangements have been completed whereby an advance party of 1000 will leave the Hague district in the near future to do pioneer work on their new holdings. There are about thirty different sects of Mennonites and this is a distinct movement from that proposed by one section of Mennonites who have purchased land in South America. An official statement signed by Bishop Wall of the Hague district, declares: "Our only objection (to staying in Canada) lies in the fact that the concession granted by the federal government, giving us entire right to conduct our schools without molestation or restriction has now been repudiated." The original charter granted by the government was signed in 1873.

The transfer of property from the Mennonites to a Winnipeg land company is near completion, and under the terms of the agreement all land must be vacated by December 1, 1922. The holdings of the Mennonites in the Hague district comprise 85,000 acres. This is also entirely independent of the Mennonite colonies of Swift Current and Manitoba, although these people have already contracted for the purchase of blocks of land in northern Mexico. When the trek of old colony church sect has been completed a total of 11,000 of these people will have left Canada for Mexico. Another 11,000 will be affected by the move to South America, but, it was pointed out, they are not members of the old colony church.

Oakland War Mothers to Greet Foch

By EDNA B. KINARD.

When Marshal Foch arrives at Oakland Pier Saturday morning a heroic little group of Oakland War Mothers will be waiting to bid him welcome. They will come from homes where the Gold Star hung in the window through the dark days of war to greet the honored military chief of the land where their sons sleep. Mrs. Charles J. Waterhouse, president of Oakland chapter, Mrs. Isabelle Kelly, Mrs. Elsie Kelly, Mrs. Cecelia Kelly and Miss Kate Miller will make up the personnel of the mother's committee which would greet the famous French soldier.

Side by side with them will be a second group of mothers—not those who gave their sons to death—but those who are striving to bring back a bit of joy to other mothers' sons who are filling the psychopathic ward in the Letterman General Hospital. Oakland War Mothers will be joined by members of the women of the hospital committee of Oakland War Mothers in paying tribute to the distinguished visitor. In their number will be Mrs. C. D. Haines, Mrs. Lydia Wolfe, Mrs. E. H. Nelson, Mrs. D. M. Rishel.

With products of the land flowing into their Christmas stores from the war mothers who live outside the city, the ladies of the hospital committee are assured that the men to whom they have pledged their interest will celebrate a bountiful Yuletide. Nuts, raisins, apples and oranges are coming in from the rural communities, or being pledged. Oakland's mothers are making the stockings which a traditional Santa Claus will hang by the fireplace on Christmas morn. Smokes will be added, and sweets, of course. For each lad there will be the little personal convenience or comfort for lack of which he has most suffered. Approximately 50 men are in the ward to which the local committee women pay a friendly visit once a month, carrying some tempting dish along with a generous supply of smokes. It is possible that this number may be increased before the holidays. Whatever the numbers, the volunteer representatives of the Christmas spirit will be ready.

Christmas carols will be sung tomorrow along with some of the old famous Christmas folk songs when the Oakland clubwomen meet to celebrate together the holiday of love and cheer. The vested choir of the Congregational church in Alameda is complimenting the club by rendering the opening numbers of the December program. "Christmas of 1863" is the old fashioned, delightful play which will be offered by a cast made up from the dramatic section. Mrs. Lottie A. Garrison will be the day's hostess.

The clubwomen who omit to attend the Municipal Open House tomorrow night and to witness the film, "California, the Land of Dreams," in which they or their fellow members participated last May in the Yosemite festival, will probably live to be sorry. The first showing of the screen version of the all-day pageant, which the California Federation of Women's Clubs made famous during the last annual convention, will be presented at a brilliant function. Club leaders headed by Mrs. Aaron Schloss and Mrs. George A. Rigg will be in the receiving line. The film will be supplemented with a program of the original music which was written for the Alameda district episode by Hendrik Jansen and rendered by the Cordorians Trio, including Lesto Aspre, violin; Mrs. Hendrik Jansen, piano; Winston Petty, cello. Mr. William Divol, member of the pageant cast, will offer two soprano solos. Pageant dances will be reproduced by Ethel Anderson, Soligwynna Boyton and Miss Katherine Edison. The program is open to the public.

Mrs. Nellie M. Drake will be the member speaker before the Thursday luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's Club in their Broadway quarters tomorrow. "Catering" will be her subject. Mrs. Gladys Beardsley, president, will preside as chairman.

The club is planning a Nickel Dance for the opening evening party in the new rooms. It is announced for Saturday night, December 10.

A membership tea this afternoon claimed the presence of many of the leaders in Oakland Federation of Mothers' Club, which under the direction of Mrs. Jack Walker is launching a drive for 10,000 members before next March. Mrs. Walker opens her Fruitvale avenue home for the informal hour which introduced a number of unique features.

Plans for the Christmas party which the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Club will give to the students in the school and final details for participation in the Country Fair which Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs is sponsoring in the Municipal Auditorium on December 12 and 13, will engage the attention of the Frick mothers tomorrow. They will meet in the auditorium of the East Oakland school in business session.

Ship Board to Sell Northern Pacific

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The Northern Pacific, sister ship of the navy flagship Great Northern, will be offered for sale by the Shipping Board to American or foreign bidders. Shipping board announced last night. Bids will be accepted until December 12 and will be considered under the board's private competitive system, it was said.

Twenty-eight other ships will be offered for sale soon, it was added.

Many who live to a ripe old age, and their eyes were sad, their voices subdued, and even when partaking of the hearty meal placed before them at one of the Paris orphan asylums they spoke in hushed tones and glanced nervously about.

Then one of the attendants threw a football into the yard. None of them had ever seen a football before, and they stared at the bouncing leather, until one of the hardiest souls among the boys gave it a kick. Ten minutes later shouts, shrieks of joy, resounding whacks of boots meeting the leather of the football, could be heard emanating from the once silent yard.

The horrors of the past six years were momentarily forgotten.

Bryan Takes Drink of Gin! Yeh, an Error

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—"William Jennings Bryan takes a drink of gin," was the headline in the New York Times.

And a Washington newspaper tonight startled the natives and conference delegates by printing that "Yeh, an Error."

Not such a big story, after all, but true and embarrassing to the arm-enemy of rum. It happened at a reception given by the Netherlands delegates to the conference last night to newspaper correspondents.

Bryan was there in his capacity of a newspaper reporter. Some one told a waiter that Bryan wasn't drinking that "Yeh, an Error" cocktail. It was an innocent-looking water glass and gin looks like water. While Bryan was looking elsewhere than at his glass, the waiter filled it with gin cocktail, permissible, of course, under the law, on the premises of a foreign envoy. Presently Bryan was thirsty and he took a swig.

Now dashed to the floor went the liquor glass and all.

Bryan did not lose his temper. He knew he had been tricked and enjoyed the laughter of his "weaker brethren."

Now dashed to the floor went the liquor glass and all.

Bryan did not lose his temper. He knew he had been tricked and enjoyed the laughter of his "weaker brethren."

Not such a big story, after all, but true and embarrassing to the arm-enemy of rum. It happened at a reception given by the Netherlands delegates to the conference last night to newspaper correspondents.

Bryan was there in his capacity of a newspaper reporter. Some one told a waiter that Bryan wasn't drinking that "Yeh, an Error" cocktail. It was an innocent-looking water glass and gin looks like water. While Bryan was looking elsewhere than at his glass, the waiter filled it with gin cocktail, permissible, of course, under the law, on the premises of a foreign envoy. Presently Bryan was thirsty and he took a swig.

Now dashed to the floor went the liquor glass and all.

HUGHES URGED TO MAKE PUBLIC HIS PROPOSAL BASIS

Japan Delegates Reported Not in Perfect Accord on the Warship Demand.

These figures will show that from any conceivable angle of figuring, Japan's existing naval strength cannot be estimated at more than the 60 per cent which she has been allotted.

The basis of the American program is "Stop where you are" in competitive building. The American experts are prepared to show that if Japan's navy is to be as strong as America and Great Britain have agreed to do—her strength will be less than the 60 per cent allotted and that as a matter of fact the ratio of 10-10-6 is "extremely liberal."

JAPANESE REPORTED NOT IN PERFECT ACCORD.

There were unmistakable evidences today that the Japanese themselves are not in perfect accord over the 70 per cent demand. The naval members of the delegation, however, are unanimous in their demand that the ratio be increased, but the political and diplomatic members of the delegation are understood to be inclined toward acceptance of the Hughes program at 60 per cent.

It is understood that some feeling has developed on this point between Vice-Admiral Kato and Prince Tokugawa, the nominal head of the delegation. This feeling is said to have been heightened last night by Tokugawa's statement to the American correspondents.

In speaking of Admiral Kato's statement that 70 per cent was the minimum which Japan could accept, Tokugawa said it represented the "official" personal opinion and not necessarily the official view of the delegation. It was reported today that this statement, coming from Tokugawa, was not pleasing to the naval members of the delegation.

Dr. Jordan declared he is greatly encouraged by the fact that Viscount Takahashi, recently appointed premier of Japan, and a personal friend of Dr. Jordan is a man "well known to be opposed to war and waste—being successful banker."

"Racial expansion," said Dr. Jordan, "is never an excuse for conquest of arms. Even the Shantung and Siberian questions would be settled by Japan in a few months if we would only let her."

There is only one way to save China, according to Dr. Jordan, and that is "to let China get up and show that she is worth saving."

"The only way to make Germany less dangerous to France," he said, "is to co-operate in reconstruction of Europe. We shall probably have to cancel the war debts but not until we have peace in Europe in exchange for them."

"Considering both Japanese and European problems, the outcome of the conference cannot help but do good," said Dr. Jordan, "and make plain that whatever happens in Asia, the United States will send no troops to rectify it."

Outlook Dark to Gerard; Where's Church, He Asks

By JAMES W. GERARD, Former Ambassador to Germany. (Copyright, 1921, by International News Service.)

Written especially for International News Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Two speeches—and one of these throwing back the old fears and hatreds—behind-scenes talk of the powers—a b a n d o n i n g their right to their own courts in China—backstairs talk of an association of nations—nothing more.

Meanwhile, the French flag, Curzon is on the warpath, and Lloyd George is a powerful, as much to be dreaded as Hitler.

And said, then the obvious thing to do is to leave Germany into this conference—cut down the impossible indemnity, restore stolen Upper Silesia and so remove the causes of future wars.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Call it what you will, the League of nations idea comes back like the proverbial cat. In February last, President Harding told me he hoped the league would be the result of the great powers in the conference.

Washington and that he hoped the outcome would be an association of nations. We, who fought for the league, will welcome a traveling under no matter what name. With Bryan, I advocated accepting the league with the Lodge reservations.

As time goes on and the intense racial antipathies of Europe are disclosed, we see that years of dreadful war, in the Balkans first, and then in the great war, have not yet taught these hotbeds of Europe the lesson of peace. In this country the disinclination to send ourselves to send our young men to fight in these disputes has been solidly confirmed.

MERCHANTS TO OPPOSE BRIDGE CLOSING CHANGE

Exchange Against Removal of Restrictions at Webster Street Span.

Opposition to the proposed removal of the Webster street bridge, which keeps the span open to pedestrian and vehicular traffic between the hours of 4:30 and 6:15 p. m., was expressed last night by members of the Merchants' Exchange at their regular meeting.

The opposition resulted from an inquiry made by the department regarding the conditions and the organization's attitude, and the members formally went on record as against the proposed change.

Members of the Exchange said that they were hopeful that their action, and the views of others, would be of sufficient weight to keep in effect the present restriction.

A committee was appointed at the meeting to make arrangements to give a Christmas dinner to the city's poor, and another body, with Harry G. Williams chairman, will provide a New Year celebration which will be held in the central part of the city on New Year's eve.

At the request of Postmaster Joseph J. Koberg, the Exchange voted to co-operate to the fullest possible extent and facilitate the handling of Christmas deliveries by the postoffice department during the holiday season.

The session was adjourned early out of respect to I. Harrison Clay, county assessor, who died Monday.

GOOD BUSINESS IS FOUNDED ON TRUTH IN 'ADS'

P. W. Stamps Tells What He Believes Constitutes Good Salesmanship.

"Good business is founded on the truth in advertising, plus good salesmanship, plus inquisitive purchasing agents."

This definition was submitted to the Oakland Ad Club at its weekly luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday by P. W. Stamps, secretary of the Purchasing Agents' Association, and purchasing agent for a large California creamery company.

Stamps' theme was on how purchasing agents react to advertising, and included a terse explanation of what he believed constituted good salesmanship.

Stamps expressed the belief that the advertising men are overlooking a splendid opportunity to sell their biggest idea in not more generally broadcasting and advertising that their fundamental principle is "Truth."

"TRUTH IS SLOGAN."

The fact that the word 'truth' is the slogan of the ad organizations should be given more emphasis and general publicity," he said. "Lots of big buyers and sellers and many potential buyers and sellers don't know that; hammer the idea home and you will detect an immediate response."

Stamps said that one of the predominant woes in the lives of purchasing agents is the contact with salesmen who have something to sell and yet do not know even the remotest detail of the manufacture or creation of the product they are endeavoring to sell.

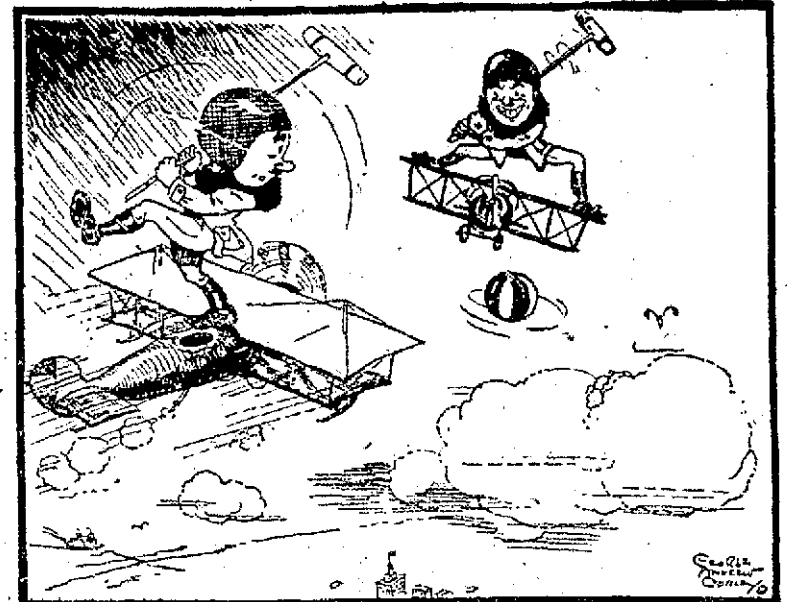

"The old Roman slogan was 'Let the Buyer Beware,' and apparently that idea has come down through each successive generation to the purchasing agent of today, as we find him assuming a skeptical attitude."

SHOULD ADVERTISE FACT.

"You have a slogan—truth—or truth in advertising. You are putting that slogan into daily practice, but you are not advertising the fact. In other words, you have a wonderful opportunity to make advertising advertise itself, make the buying public understand that truth is in advertising, and then see that the manufactured article backs up your advertisements, and by so doing you will have a much more favorable reaction by the purchasing agents to advertising than is now experienced."

Aerial Polo to Be Played At Durant Field Sunday

Four Airmen to Take Part in Thrilling Contest for Benefit of California Grays.

The latest game played by airmen, aerial polo, will be demonstrated to the public at Durant field Sunday, when four aviators will perform as a benefit to the Oakland company of the California Grays. Hundreds of tickets have already been sold and a record crowd is expected. The meet will be under the direction of Chet Clarke.

Aero polo was first played in the United States in eastern aviation centers. It originated with the British aviators, who devised it for war practice. Observers attempted to puncture the balloons with shotguns before it could be captured by the airmen who maneuvered about it attempting to effect a capture and bring it to earth.

To make the game safe, the American aviators eliminated the shotguns, but for that is one of, if not our greatest, vehicle for educating the people—for after all education is merely an exchange of ideas and that is what our newspapers, magazines and periodicals are doing. They are taking ideas from their different sources and giving them to the public.

"There is one kind of advertising to which any buyer reacts and that is the living advertisement you have in salesmen, for in effect, when a salesman enters a buyer's office the buyer sees that salesman's entire organization, and it is up to the salesman as to whether or not the buyer shall and to develop skill invented a game whereby the airplane must carry the balloon to a certain goal. The wings of the plane are equipped with nets. Large meteorological balloons are released. The object is to catch the slow-moving sphere and carry it over the goal line before it can be picked up by the opposing team.

Four machines will take to the air Sunday afternoon and in pairs will compete for honors. The game furnishes a thrill to old and young alike. There is always the danger of a crash in the air. Only recently in a practice game at Durant Field one airman struck his opponent's machine a glancing blow. Luckily no serious damage resulted.

The four aviators who will participate in the polo game Sunday are Chet Clarke, Richard Doane, Franklin Rose and Cloyd Cavanaugh.

react favorably or otherwise. It is the well-informed salesman who knows all about his product and also the buyer's needs that causes a favorable reaction; or to use an algebraic illustration as it were, truth in advertising—a well-informed salesman plus an acquisitive buyer equals results."

SPECIAL FERRY BOAT WILL TAKE FOCH OVER BAY

Allied Leader to Be Greeted
At Mole by Oakland Veterans.

A special ferry-boat will be provided Saturday morning by the Southern Pacific Company to take Marshal Foch and his party across to San Francisco from the Oakland mole. Foch will be greeted at the mole by the commanders of the various American Legion posts of the Eastbay district and ex-service men, as well as city and county officials and representatives of the French Society of Oakland.

Carrying the necessary automobiles and the reception party, the special ferry-boat will leave the ferry building at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. On the arrival of Foch's special train from Portland the party will stop ten minutes for the reception, after which it will board the ferry for San Francisco. The boat will land at Slip No. 2 at the north end of the ferry building, the party leaving the ferry in the machines, emerging directly onto the Embarcadero.

The first town in California to officially welcome Marshal Foch will be Redding, where the distinguished visitor will stop for twenty minutes. He will be welcomed by Shasta Post of the American Legion, according to a despatch from the northern city today. The post persuaded the party director to permit the marshal and his party to stop off. His next reception will be at the Oakland mole, followed by the reception of the city of San Francisco.

Every minute from the time he arrives in San Francisco until he leaves at 8:30 in the evening Marshal Foch's time will be taken up with entertainment and sightseeing. His progress up Market street will be marked with military pomp and ceremony. All honors due his rank will be given by the United States army and navy.

"Safety First" Heating

Fire consumes oxygen. This fact is demonstrated by placing a burning candle in a bottle and making the bottle airtight. The candle light soon goes out, indicating that all the oxygen in the bottle has been consumed. We all know that oxygen is necessary to life. Our bodies demand a certain amount of oxygen. If we get less than the required amount, our health is sure to suffer. Hot water or steam heating in the home does not affect the oxygen supply. Other forms of heating do. Ask a heating contractor for the truth of this.

RETAIN FILIPINOS UNDER U. S., URGES FORBES PROBES

Natives, Though Capable, Not Experienced Enough, Says Mission's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The Philippine Islands should remain in their "present general status" until the people there have had time to absorb and thoroughly master the power already in their hands, former Major General Leonard Wood, now governor-general, and W. Cameron Forbes, former governor-general, say in their report to President Harding, based on their six months' study of conditions in the islands.

"We are convinced," they say, "that it would be a betrayal of the Philippine people, a misfortune to the American people, a distinct step backward in the path of progress and a discreditable neglect of our national duty were we to withdraw from the islands and terminate our relationship there without giving the Filipinos the best chance possible to have orderly and permanent stable government."

NOT ENOUGH EXPERIENCE.
"We feel that with all their many excellent qualities, the experience of the past eight years, during which they have had practical autonomy, has not been such as to justify the people of the United States in relinquishing supervision of the government of the Philippine Islands, withdrawing their army and navy and leaving the islands a prey to any powerful nation coveting their rich soil and potential commercial advantages."

These observations of the investigators are contained in the "general conclusions" and "recommendations" made in the report which was made public today. General conclusions follow:

TOO LITTLE INSPECTION.
We find that a reasonable proportion of officials and employees are men of good character, ability and reasonably faithful to the trust imposed upon them, but that the efficiency of the public service has fallen off, and that they are now relatively inefficient due to lack of inspections and to the too rapid transfer of control to officials who have not had the proper training.

We find that there is a disquieting lack of confidence in the administration of justice, to an extent which constitutes a menace to the stability of the government. We find that the people are not organized, economically nor from the standpoint of national defense to maintain an independent government.

BOARD'S RECOMMENDATIONS.
These recommendations are made in the report: That the responsible representatives of the United States, the governor general, have authority commensurate with the responsibilities of his position. In case of failure to secure the necessary corrective action by the Philippine legislature we recommend that congress declare null and void legislation which has been enacted diminishing, limiting or dividing the authority granted the governor general under the Jones bill.

That in case of a deadlock between the governor general and the Philippine senate in the confirmation of appointments, the President of the United States be authorized to make and render the final decisions.

That under no circumstances should the American government permit to be established in the Philippines a situation which would leave the United States in a position of responsibility without authority.

MAN 98 SAYS READ PAPERS TO KEEP YOUNG

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Reading newspapers will help one to keep young. This is the opinion of Dr. Stephen Smith, founder of the New York health department, who recently celebrated his 98th birthday.

"Read all the news in the papers," he advised. "Read even the murders. I get six papers every day and read them all through."

Up to two years ago Dr. Smith walked eight miles every day. He still takes his daily constitutional, but has cut down the distance.

'THE KID' REVIVED AT THE COLUMBIA

Four days of unadulterated fun is promised the patrons of the Columbia theater for the balance of this week when Charlie Chaplin will appear with Jackie Coogan in the greatest of all motion picture comedy dramas, "The Kid," which will be shown in conjunction with the new musical comedy, "Cuddie Up," featuring Solly Carter, Eddie Gilbert and the Columbia musical comedy company.

"The Kid" is being returned to the Columbia theater by popular demand. It has been voted the finest picture ever made by Charlie and it marks the first in which Coogan, the boy comedian, appears as co-star with the inimitable comedian. They are the greatest combination of mirth-makers who ever got together and the laughs that Charlie Chaplin overlooks come fresh and snappy from "the kid." The picture is a six-reeler and is jammed full of action. It took Chaplin a year to film "The Kid" and it ranks pre-eminent over all of his other releases.

"The Kid" opens its engagement at the Columbia this afternoon and continues until Saturday, inclusive, when it will be followed by a big double program, Marshall Nellan's "Go and Get It" and "The Peek-a-Boo Girls."

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 30.—With the request by Director Austin B. Fletcher of the state department of public works that Captain Charles H. Lee, chief of the division of water rights, tender his resignation, effective today, another political head was severed that the state government may be "consolidated and centralized with the utmost efficiency and harmony."

Lee, a San Franciscan, was lopped off the state payroll because of his opposition to Director Fletcher's plan to move the division of water rights from San Francisco to this city. Fletcher said that nothing can halt him in his intention to bring the division of water rights to this city. "I intend to centralize my department regardless of opposition," he declared.

Why Guess About It— When You Can Know About It?

Suppose a guide said—

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles on the way," and—

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Coffee contains drug qualities which disturb and harm the health of many.

Postum or coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the top by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.

F. SCHOOL CHILDREN SING AT INDUSTRY EXHIBITION

of C. and Olympic Club Honored At Auditorium

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—To the Knights of Columbus and the Olympic Club day at the Civic Auditorium in this city, where the California Industries Exposition is being held.

The program featured principally school children of San Francisco, who appeared in a series of musical, dramatic and general exercises. The children of the Douglas and the Junipero Serra schools opened the program at 8 o'clock with musical offerings, and an hour later five thousand children gave a demonstration of their singing.

The Knights of Columbus have planned a musical program which will include a series of numbers by the St. Ignace Society, which will be led by Mrs. Robert H. Grubb.

MODEL STEAM LAUNDRY.

Another feature of the evening entertainment will be the demonstration of the new $10,000 model steam laundry. This exhibition has been provided by the Southern California Laundry Owners' Association.

This will be followed by an exhibition of the work done by the Evening High School of Commerce, which will be repeated later in the evening. Cassassa's Exposition band will give a brief concert and the Polytechnic High school orchestra will play a short program.

A unique demonstration was provided yesterday afternoon when five hundred school children, representing fifteen San Francisco schools, took their places on an improvised stage and sang under the direction of Miss Estelle Carpenter, director of music in the public schools.

This was the first time that the voices of the school children have Seed Company Booth Attracting Attention.

The booth of C. C. Morse & Co., pioneer California seed house, is attracting much favorable attention at the California Industries Exposition at the Civic Auditorium. C. C. Morse & Co. is the only seed company participating in the exposition and they are making especially strong efforts to acquire the interest of visitors with the importance of the seed industry in California.

An attendant is on duty at the booth at all times to give out information regarding the proper planting of seeds and the care of growing plants and flowers. From a display standpoint, the booth is very attractive, being made up of glass panels separated into compartments which contain hundreds of varieties of seeds. It gives a comprehensive exhibit of the diversity of the products of the 3000 acres of California soil devoted to the growing of seeds and bulbs. Decorating the walls and sides of the booth are many beautiful flowers given from C. C. Morse & Co. seeds.

Cigarette Holder Meets With Success.

The Ejecto Cigarette Holder invented and being manufactured in San Francisco, is as the name implies, a holder designed to eject the burnt stub of the cigarette and thus eliminate the one bothersome and disagreeable feature connected with the use of a cigarette holder. In appearance you would never distinguish it from the conventional staple holder. There is nothing freakish or mechanical looking about it to detract. With an Ejecto, therefore, the smoker is assured of having a holder which he will take pride in possessing and at the same time eliminate the one big objectionable feature common to the ordinary holder.

This article has met with almost phenomenal success since production started last May. Into the eastern field under the very nose of the large eastern manufacturers, it has made its way. Across the boundary into Canada it has gone and in its business travels has found a ready sale wherever introduced. An article that meets a long felt demand and put out at an attractive price within the reach of all, cannot help but meet with success. The consuming public is quick to respond when it knows it can obtain what it has long wanted.

Ejecto invites you, Mr. Cigarette Smoker, to look him up at the Industries Exposition. He is on the lookout to meet you over near the Chamber of Commerce exhibit and promises you a revelation in smoking satisfaction once you get together. Nixus will soon be here, The Ejecto Cigarette Holder makes an inexpressible yet most attractive gift. It will be sure to please. Novel and different, but exceedingly practical, it solves the ladies' problem, viz: "What shall I give him."

Flour Firm Has One Of Finest Booths.

One of the prettiest booths at the exposition is that of the Sperry flour company. An archway across the top is supported by two large gold and white pillars, upon the top of each is a Sperry mill, one of the trademarks of the company. A complete electric kitchen as installed and demonstrated are given by the Sperry Domestic Science Department. Instructions in baking everything from bread to the delectable puddings are given. Those who have already visited the exposition will find it well worth while to again visit the Sperry booth and learn more about this art and the many different ways in which Sperry products can be used.

Bal-bed Result of Two Years' Planning.

The Bal-bed that takes less wall space than a chair—that conceals itself in any room—that is always ready and made up for use in a moment—is an Oakland product being manufactured by the American Automatic Lock and Lift Co. at 165 Thirteenth.

This concern, makers of the "California" wall bed, has been working for two years on a bed that could be installed anywhere and which could be marketed through the furniture trade—the Bal-bed is the result. In many ways the new bed is unique. The foot frame of the Bal-bed is bent to form a drape rod so that the drape hanging from it conceals the front and sides. When the Bal-bed is lowered the drape is withdrawn from the sides and secured to the bottom of the springs by two tapes which hold it off the floor. The head piece is so attached to the Bal-bed that whether up or down it always assumes a vertical position.

"The Bal-bed is really an answer to an instant demand that started soon after the housing shortage became acute. We were besieged by our agents everywhere to produce some kind of wall bed that could be installed in any room without carpet work. The dining room and living room have been pressed into service by the Bal-bed and we predict that the new found use for these rooms will be continued."

Company's Candy Sold All Over Country.

Although originally produced and sold only in the Pacific coast section, the growing popularity of Hoefler's Centennial Chocolates soon made it necessary to provide for wider distribution. This has been constantly extended until there are few localities in the United States where they may not be obtained.

The big Polson street factory in San Francisco supplies the demand in California and adjoining states to the east. Under the personal direction of President Hoefler of the Hoefler Centennial Chocolate Company, a portion of the factory has been moved to the auditorium and is now operating in the exhibit of the company in connection with the California Industries Exposition.

Young women are in attendance.

Musical Comedy Composer Passes

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Ivan Caryll, composer of "The Pink Lady," "The Circus Girl," and other musical comedies, died in his hotel apartment last night after a brief illness. He was 59 years old.

Caryll, whose family name was Felix Tilken, was born in Belgium. Since 1885, when his first lyric compositions were sung in London, he has been one of the most prolific and successful writers of English and American musical plays. He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Primrose.

THE PROSPEROUS EAST-OF-THE-LAKE COMMUNITY

DIMOND PARK QUARTER ACRES VERY POPULAR

How Family Can Keep Down High Cost of Living Right at Home.

Dimond Park Quarter Acres is one of the choice tracts in the East-of-the-Lake district, and it combines more attractive features with extremely low prices than any tract that has been put on the market for a long while.

This tract was laid out with the distinct idea of providing a home section for those who are engaged in the great industrial plants of the East-of-the-Lake district. It is within easy reach of the Fruitvale Avenue car line leading to East Fourteenth street and on the Hopkins street line leading to Oakland.

With the idea of giving more room than the ordinary city lot, this tract has been divided into quarter acre plots, or the equivalent of four ordinary city lots. This means that there is ample room for not only a house, but for a good-sized garden, and a few chickens and a garage besides.

A quarter acre plot will keep a good-sized family in vegetables, fruit, chickens and eggs and leave a little for friends and neighbors.

This is the great reason why Dimond Park Quarter Acres has been popular.

The sale is being conducted each Saturday and Sunday on the grounds, and those who wish to inspect the place at other times can call up

Fine Store Will Be Built in Fruitvale

An important improvement which will soon be realized in the Fruitvale-Melrose business section will be the construction of a new store to house the growing business of H. R. Dow, painter and wall paper, now located on Fruitvale avenue opposite the theater.

The contract has been let for the new building, which will be built at 3324 and 3326 East Fourteenth street. It will be of reinforced concrete, two stories high and ninety feet deep. The second floor will be devoted to apartments, while the entire ground floor will be occupied by Dow, who already has one of the largest businesses in his line east of the lake, including paint contracting in all its branches. The building will be completed early in 1922.

Druggist Has Served Locality 17 Years

The drug store of Philip & Philip at 1410 Fruitvale avenue is, with one exception, the oldest store in Fruitvale, having been established seventeen years ago on the corner of Fruitvale and East Fourteenth, where the Bank of Italy now stands.

When the bank secured the corner it was necessary for the drug store to move. It has been in its present location, next door to the bank, since that time.

EAST-O'-LAKE A DISTRICT OF RAPID GROWTH

Five Million of Factories and Five Thousand of Men Coming.

The East-of-the-Lake district is the fastest growing section of Oakland. No other part of the city can show anything like the growth of this section, which includes old East Oakland, Fruitvale, Melrose, Dimond and out to Broadmoor and San Leandro. This growth is not temporary. It has been steady for the last ten years and there is one big factor that makes for the continuance of this growth.

There are eight big institutions that have purchased factory sites in this district east of the Lake, aggregating 105 acres, with plants planned of the value of $5,000,000 with an estimated number of employees of between 5000 and 6000.

No part of the Eastbay can show such a prospect for the future. The five thousand prospective factory employees will need a many dwelling places, and they will need shopping facilities right at home.

Such shopping facilities are being built up every day in the half-dozen centers that go to make up this great East-of-the-Lake district.

Stores and shops of all kinds are open and being opened as the trade of this section increases. Not only are the ordinary daily wants of the family being supplied, but the special and extraordinary wants are being catered to. Department stores and feature stores are being developed, and fine and exclusive stocks are being carried as well as large and well selected lines of standard goods.

The East-of-the-Lake district is becoming sufficient unto itself. The real estate market in this district is well established, and it is the most active market in the whole Eastbay section. There is evident anticipation of the immediate future, and many are buying while prices are low. When the great industries begin to build along the railroad lines, there will be a boom in East-of-the-Lake real estate. At present it is lower than ever in the history of this section.

The great Durant factory is already under way in the extreme southern part of this section, almost on the San Leandro line. Spur tracks are being built, and the ground laid out for the factory, that will employ upward of 1000 men. This is just the beginning of an industrial activity that will be in full swing during the coming year.

The East-of-the-Lake district is up and coming and is showing other parts of the city how to boom.

Eastside Trade Board Shows Big Gains in Year

Bringing to a close its first year of organization, in which many benefits have been derived for the entire section of the city in which the association is interested, the East Side Board of Trade will on January 1 enter into its second year of usefulness with a bigger and broader understanding of its purpose.

Organized with a small handful of business and professional men east of Lake Merritt as its membership, the organization has shown a steady growth during its first twelve months, the close of the year showing a membership of approximately 250. This number will be greatly increased during the coming year, according to those interested in the board, one of the initial moves to be started soon after the first of next year being a campaign for increased membership.

WIDE REPRESENTATION
Every locality in that portion of Oakland east of the lake is represented by membership in the East Side Board, one member of each neighborhood organization being on the directorate of the Board of Trade. This assures each locality an equal opportunity to be heard on matters pertaining to its own particular requirements. Officers who have given much of their time to the advancement of the board during its first year are: L. B. Magoon, president; Charles H. Secombe, vice-president; Joseph H. Mary, second vice-president; E. E. Hunt, third vice-president; R. O. McClintock, secretary; A. P. Winston, treasurer, and J. H. Holdsworth, sergeant-at-arms.

ELECTION DECEMBER 15.
These officers will retire at the end of the year and give way to their successors, who will be elected at the meeting of the membership December 15. This will be the last meeting of the year and a number of other important matters will be taken up in addition to election of officers.

The rapid growth of population in the territory east of Lake Merritt has brought with it a complexity of different problems, first of which is safety and particular attention has been given to this question. From the small number of three patrolmen the force east of the lake has grown to more than ten, and there are three traffic police stationed on East Fourteenth street—at Twenty-fourth, Fruitvale and Melrose respectively. A number of other important developments which have been initiated by the present officers will come to fruition under their successors.

25,000 Cars a Day Go Through Melrose

A startling proof of the rapid development of travel along East Side thoroughfares is shown by the figures obtained by R. W. Meadows, shoe merchant of Melrose. Three weeks ago last Sunday Meadows stationed himself at the corner of High and East Fourteenth, at 8 a. m., equipped with an automatic counter which he tallied all passing automobiles from that hour till 8 p. m. During the twelve hours the total number passing rose to the remarkable total of 17,132, and it is probable that the total for twenty-four hours approximates 25,000.

The number per hour varied considerably, commencing with 720, dropping to 696 between 9 and 10 and then rose steadily to 1830 between 3 and 4, dropped to 1794 between 4 and 5 and again increased to 2264 between 5 and 6, the heaviest travel of the day, after which it decreased to as low as 1250 between 7 and 8 p. m. A conservative estimate of the total number of people carried during the entire twenty-four hours would be fully 75,000.

Here's a Chance to Win Prizes in Charlie Chaplin Parade Next Saturday

TRIBUNE WILL GIVE MONEY AND TICKETS Best Imitation of Comedian to Get the Cash

Have you a little Chaplin fan in your home? A regular teller who apes, with a fair degree of success, the antics and gestures of Charlie Chaplin, the famous, etc.?

Or a youngster who secretly thinks he could give Charlie some tips and pointers on the art of pantomime? If you have, here's something that will interest both you and the youngsters.

The TRIBUNE is to give a big Charlie Chaplin parade in downtown Oakland next Saturday noon. Those in it will assemble at The TRIBUNE at 11:30 o'clock. The parade is open to every youngster who wants to compete with other youngsters in giving the best imitation of Charlie Chaplin.

All that is needed is the desire and the necessary old clothes. The average kid can give a more accurate description of Charlie's garb than the average adult, so it won't be necessary to detail what the costume should be. Prizes are to be awarded—three cash prizes and countless tickets of admission to movie shows—two tickets for those who don't win a cash prize.

Question: Can you beat that? Answer: No.

The first prize will be $15, the second $10 and the third $5. Oakland motion picture theater managers will pick the winners. Further details will appear in daily issues of The TRIBUNE.

Mayor Otis Placed on Reception Committee
 ALAMEDA, Nov. 30.—Mayor Frank Otis has been appointed a member of the reception committee which is to greet Marshal Ferdinand when the latter arrives in San Francisco Saturday morning. The mayor will represent the city of Alameda. The appointment was made by Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco, who will head the committee of greeters.

Dormitory Report at U. C. Is Due Friday
 BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—Following a general report on the necessity of dormitories at the University of California, Charles Binder, chairman of the committee for investigation of living conditions on the campus, promises a complete report of his findings Friday.

That board charges are too high and living conditions poor, is the claim of Binder, and he will present figures to prove his contentions to the student body at their meeting this week.

The "single unit" plan advanced by Binder yesterday is one which will resolve itself into "small living units," he declares, in which thirty or forty students will live in groups separated from their fellows. The best available site for the dormitories at present is the land owned by the university in the hills back of the Greek theater, he says.

 BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—With Thelma Biron, 9 years old, held in the detention home in Oakland, until the court can decide to whom she shall be awarded, the case of Mrs. Mary Littlefield, 24, charged with kidnaping her own daughter, will come up for trial on December 7.

Judge Robert Edgar yesterday ordered the child into the keeping of the county authorities. Mrs. Littlefield was arrested on the complaint of her divorced husband, Mateo Biron, employee of the California School for the Deaf and the Blind.

Charlie Chaplin to Tell Of Wanderings in London

While in London Charlie Chaplin slipped away into the maze of city streets for walks to be alone. He found that there was no solitude for a man whose face is known to almost every man, woman and child in the civilized world.

Wherever he went, someone would point him out. If he walked through a park his exultation over being free from the public gaze would soon be dispelled by a troop of kiddies running forward to shout his name. If he sauntered through the slums, absorbing the local color of the biggest city in the world, some woman or man would confront him and accuse him of being the comedian.

Yet to go with Chaplin on these walks through London provides an enchanting recreation.

In his great series, which begins next Sunday in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE, to run every day, Chaplin tells of his journeys about the European capital of commerce and finance.

With Charlie you meet J. M. Barrie, the author. You go with him to the Garrick club, made famous by the celebrities who have gathered there for many years.

Chaplin meets people in London who knew him when he was but a poor boy, struggling along to support himself and his mother in their garret home. Those strolls bring back the memories of his youth.

At night Charlie will take you through the streets, giving you a view of London's night life. The unfortunate, the vicious, the outcasts, all pass in review.

"Here is life in its elemental rawness," he says in referring to the girls who accosted the men of his party from time to time.

Read Charlie Chaplin's story and you will understand what makes the comedian the greatest among the fun-makers of the screen today.

Italian Library Is Given to University
 BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—As a feature of the Dante commemorative ceremonies held last night in Wheeler Auditorium, an Italian library, containing the principal works of authors of that country since the days of Plutarch, was presented to the university.

A bust of Dante was also presented to the university for installation in the library. Italian residents of the Bay section, students and others joined in the tribute to the poet.

Butcher Plays Santa At Thanksgiving Feud
 BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—A. L. Winter, proprietor of a market at 2080 University avenue, didn't know it, but he presented one family with a Thanksgiving turkey and funds for trimmings as well.

Winter discovered his generosity this morning when a check presented to him Thanksgiving eve in payment for a twelve-pound turkey was returned from the First National bank as worthless. Moreover, Winter had presented the writer of the check with $10 in change.

The check was passed by a well-dressed young man giving his name as H. B. Harvey. The check was signed George E. Howard.

Oakland has outdistanced every city west of Chicago in industrial expansion for the five years up to January 1, 1920, according to figures compiled today by the Chamber of Commerce.

Taking San Francisco and Oakland as mediums for comparison, the figures show that in the five-year period Oakland registered an increase of 175 per cent in the number of industrial employees, while San Francisco's percentage is 45. In the percentage of capital invested in industrial enterprises Oakland advanced 226 per cent and San Francisco 124 per cent.

FRAT HOUSES BARRED FROM PIEDMONT AVE.

BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—Fraternal houses and other similar dwellings are barred from Piedmont avenue between Russell and Derby streets as the result of action taken by the council yesterday.

Dr. T. C. McElvaine headed a delegation of property owners along the thoroughfare, asking that the district be made strictly residential in character. The delegation agreed to allow several multiple family dwellings to remain as they are at present, provided that no changes be made in the exterior appearance of the residences.

Pamphlet Is Sent to Journalism Students
 BERKELEY, Nov. 30.—A pamphlet addressed to university students intending to follow journalism as their life work has been issued by the faculty committee on journalistic studies at the University of California. Because of a lack of funds to institute new courses, few classes in practical journalism will be offered next year, it is said.

BIG PAGEANT IS GIVEN REHEARSAL

Rehearsals for the big Christmas pageant at the Auditorium, December 15 and 16 were held today at the Golden Gate playground at Skyway and San Pablo, with fairies, dancers, heralds and other performers in costume for the colorful spectacle.

The pageant is organized and directed by the city playground department. It is planned to be as ambitious as the one last year, with even more performers and musicians.

According to the announcement, and the principal work recommended is in English, history and political science as a background for later work.

It is the aim of Professor R. P. Usher, chairman of the committee, to found a graduate school of journalism at the university in the future. His plan would make the "major" work in journalistic theory equal in importance to the established professional schools of medicine and law.

STANDARD BUYS BLOCK OF STOCK IN PACIFIC OIL

S. P. Interests Acquired in Part by California Co. to Head Off Shell People.

The Southern Pacific railway and the Standard Oil Company have joined hands in ownership of oil properties in California.

Kingbury, president of the Standard Oil Company of California, announced today in New York that his company had had a long conference with the Standard Oil Company of California, in the Pacific Oil Company, an auxiliary of the railway. He declared that the Standard Oil Company of the oil from the lands that were transferred to the Pacific Oil Company, and that the Standard Oil Company delivered to the Standard Oil Company of California for use in its refineries, and this fact, together with the desirability of strengthening the American ownership of Pacific Oil, had led his company to purchase the interest referred to.

It is reported that British interests, represented by the Royal Dutch Company, also had been negotiating for the property.

R. F. OWNED LAND.

The Southern Pacific Company formerly had large tracts of oil producing lands in California. The oil produced from these lands was consumed as fuel oil and so found its way to the refineries. A year ago the railway sold the lands to the Standard Oil business. It formed the Pacific Oil Company, and it gave its holders of railway stock the right to vote to acquire at $15 a share the stock of the new oil company.

The Pacific Oil Company has large tracts of land in the San Joaquin Valley, especially around Pakersfield, and has been steadily becoming a more important factor in the oil situation in California.

SMALL AFRICAN PROSPECTORY—Some months ago, it was rumored that interests identified with the Royal Dutch or Shell Company would hold a large part of the valuable holdings of the Pacific. It was hinted that there were inside disclosures regarding the ownership of a large part of the stock, somewhat after the manner that the Union Oil Company had been able to obtain control of its property through the formation and later sale of the Union Oil Company of California. The rumor was resented by the Royal Dutch Company, which is a British concern and has its interests shaped by the British government.

When the rumors of the negotiations of the Shell people became known to the Americans, it became no time was lost in the California Company concluding a deal for the purchase of controlling interest in the Pacific Oil. The Pacific Oil stockholders were Americans and anxious to see the company remain in American control. They closed with the deal.

the door has thus been shut to further control of California oil production by foreign interests in one direction.
President Kingsbury of the Standard Oil has been working for four days working out the details of the deal.

LEADERS IN CLASS 'A' AND 'B' LEAGUE TO MEET IN GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

Bertillion Hatters Are Promising to Stir Up Lots of Trouble in Remaining Games.

Several managers of clubs in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE Class A League are doing a lot of talking these days because their team will be a participant in what the fans call "one of the big games of the day" next Sunday afternoon. There are several games on the Class A schedule that look like they will draw record crowds, but the "A" boys are going to find a lot of opposition, for in the Class B League some games are scheduled between teams that are fighting for the top position, and as the boys in the junior branch of the league have been playing snappy ball, they are going to draw their amount of fans. The clash between the Oakland Natives No. 50 and the Melrose Merchants at the Melrose diamond is one of the big Class A events for Sunday, and so is the one scheduled at Washington Park in West Alameda between the Whelan Markets and Alameda club. Some club is going to lose its hold on the top rung, so naturally the fans are going to watch with interest the result of those games.

However a fan is likely to step out

The teams that are leading the list, and they will not be surprised to learn that they are leading, are the results are the reverse of the first half, and some of the teams now leading at the top of the list are on top at the finish.

Cliff Durant, manager of the Cliff Durant Motors, has his players are anxious to get any postponed or left off the schedule, and they want to meet the Melrose Hardware nine in a double-header next Sunday. The Melrose Hardware and Durants played a tie game recently, and they are scheduled to meet again at the home field.

the races being waged in their three divisions are keeping the fans guessing as to the time the race in the Eastern division has been won since ever since the start of the season. The three teams are now tied for the lead and the fans are waiting for the lead. But the ice is going to be at least partly cracked next Sunday morning when the Three All-Stars will leave their home ice at Salsburg.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30.—Danay Edwards of Oakland was given a close decision over Babe Herman of Sacramento in the main event at Veterans arena here last night. They boxed 12 rounds.

Ambrose-California Game Is Called Off

Due to a conflict in dates it was necessary for the backslashed team, the U. S. S. California to cancel a game with the Ambrose Tallyer Ave. scheduled for tomorrow night. The challenges came at once and Ensign Bain, manager of the fleet five, accepted the challenge of the St. Louis Cardinals. Thus the only appearance of the California team here this week will be in the "kick the can" format.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE PROMISES TO BE WONDERFUL SUCCESS

FRENCH TENNIS FEDERATION DENIES THAT Mlle. SUZANNE LENGLEN QUIT IN AMERICA

EAST BAY BASKETBALL LEAGUE WILL UNITE ALL TEAMS OF CITY

Clubs From Outlying Towns Are Entering New League of Bay Cities Federation

Plans for the city-wide Eastbay Basketball League are being completed by the committee headed by W. A. Kearns and with entries coming in daily it is evident that the league this year will produce the best basketball ever seen in such an organization on this side of the bay. The unlimited division has already received sufficient entries to indicate that there is a united movement of all managers on this side of the bay to co-operate in making this league the greatest success ever seen during a court season here and in the weight divisions of the 120, 130 and 145-pound classes there has been a marked increase of entries within the last three days. The meeting for the drawing of a schedule is not set until December 6, but even at this early date the managers have been sending in their entries in an effort to indicate their full support to the movement.

It is not necessary that the entries be received before the day of the meeting, but in order to allow the committee to choose approximately the number of teams that facilities will be required for, it is highly desirable that managers of basketball teams in all of these divisions be notified of the movement. Those managers of teams that, in former years, were affiliated with the Oakland League, have already signified their intention of having stronger teams in the field this year during the last season, and all of these teams will be represented in the Eastbay basketball league.

Recreation Department Strong For Movement

Jay B. Nash, head of the Recreation department of Oakland, is giving his hearty support to the movement. He has assured W. A. Kearns that there will be no shortage of courts for the teams in this league. With interest in basketball on the increase around the bay, there have been many teams springing up over the city and some of these giving evidence of putting strong organizations into the field. While others are playing in their first year and will be more or less even over to the process of organization. It is welcome to take part in this movement that is to unite all basketball teams in the Eastbay. Teams from many of the local retailers' organizations have already entered and at the present time there are a score of local industrial and retail houses in the process of organizing teams that would, under ordinary conditions, compete in a retailers' or bankers' league.

All Interests Will Be Combined in League

The necessity of combining all of these interests has been recognized and taken into consideration the shortage of available courts on the east side of the bay. In past years it has been necessary to play basketball in three games in an evening, and in order to avoid going to points outside the city limits, many teams have been forced to play in the city. It is now planned that the league will be organized so that teams will be able to play in the city and on some of these courts and these details will all be worked out at the meeting called for December 6, at which time representatives of the local high schools, the Oakland Recreation Department, the managers of all teams entered and others interested and members of the Eastbay coaches and officials association, will get together in order to draw up a schedule and arrange plans that will insure the success of the league.

University Clubs To Take Part

The latest group of organizations to take part in the league is the University of California. Yesterday

Santa Clara Quintet Will Be Strong One

McGlinchey, Vukota Expected to Win Regular Places in the Line-up

Football having been set to rest with fitting ceremony at Santa Clara, the athletic inclinations now turn to basketball. The Santa Clara quintet, made up of the Red and White on the court, started yesterday, and in addition to the local players, the team has a number of players from the local high schools. The team is expected to be a strong one, and will be a contender for the championship.

WATCH THE NEWCOMERS

The letter men, however, are not to be taken lightly. They are expected to be a strong one, and will be a contender for the championship.

THEY LIKE AURESCOECHER

For Coach Santa Clara has been very lucky in procuring the services of Joe Aurescoecher, a former All-American and all-around athlete. Joe is a former player of the Santa Clara team, and is expected to be a strong one, and will be a contender for the championship.

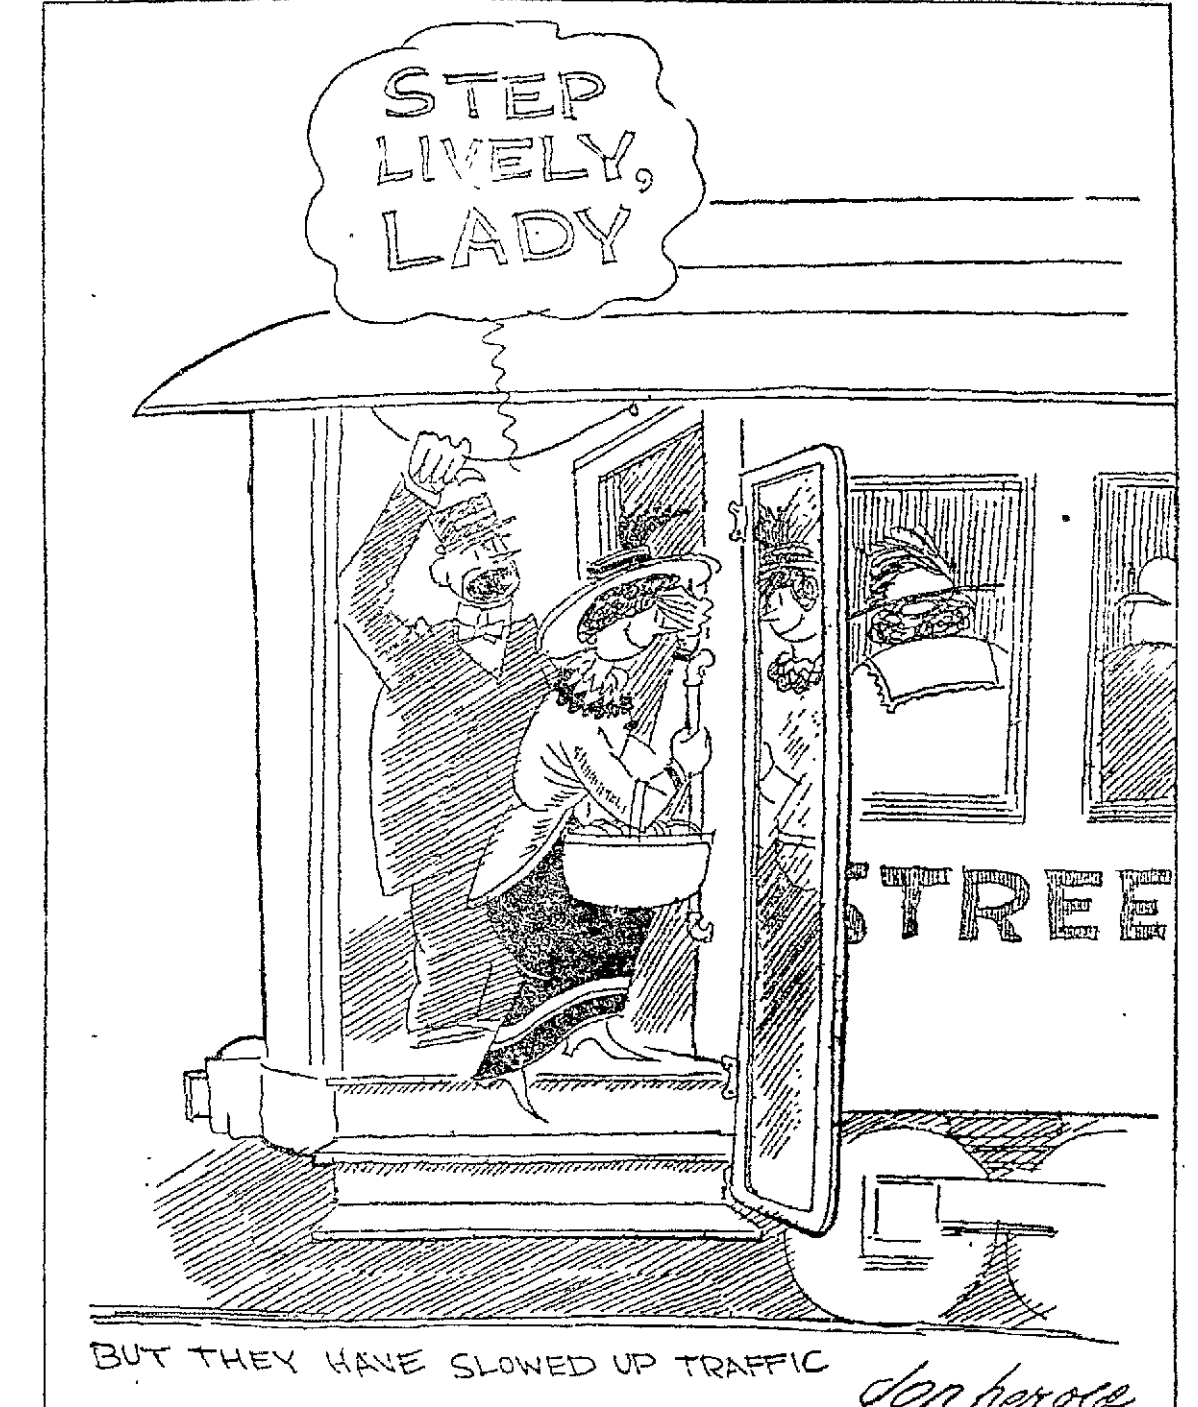

Schedule To Be Drawn On Dec. 6

It is practically certain that the drawing of the schedule will be held on December 6, at which time representatives of the local high schools, the Oakland Recreation Department, the managers of all teams entered and others interested and members of the Eastbay coaches and officials association, will get together in order to draw up a schedule and arrange plans that will insure the success of the league.

BERKELEY GOLF COURSE DEVELOPING FAST WITH EXPERTS AT THE HELM

Sequoiah and California Golf Clubs to Start First Half of Tournament Next Saturday

Visiting the Berkeley course after an absence of nearly six months is a revelation in how golf course construction has progressed in California. Only a few months back trees were being rooted up and the proposed fairway resembled in many respects a modern battlefield after the enemy had been helled for several days. Today the remaining nine greens are covered with a rich growth of turf, which promises to develop, with rolling and cutting, into a regular golfers' paradise. At practically all the new holes William Watson has refrained from building up or excavating sites for the greens. The natural slope of the land has been utilized in a conservative manner and is a splendid reproduction of natural courses at St. Andrews, Carnoustie and North Berwick in Scotland. The fairways have been carefully seeded and have now a good turf covering, which will give an excellent playing surface when rolling and cutting can be started. The clubhouse is now completed and furnished in a pleasing and comfortable manner. The view from the dining-room windows will be a never ending source of pleasure to tired and hungry players after their 18 or 36 holes of golf. Dr. C. H. Terry is working hard to make the comforts of the Berkeley Golf and Country clubhouse second to none.

The inter-club match with California which is scheduled to commence a week from next Saturday, December 10, is causing a great deal of interest at Sequoiah. The team will probably include players with handicaps ranging from 1 to 10. The selection of this team will rest with Dr. C. H. Terry. B team selection

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

IRON CLUB PLAY.

In my last article I spoke of the necessity for accuracy in the iron clubs. By some approaching, which is that part of the game for which iron clubs are used, is the most difficult part of golf. I always divide the game in three parts: The driving, the iron play, and the putting. The driving is the easiest, the iron play is the most difficult, and the putting is the most difficult. The Modern Housewife and the Bakery

The great impetus which the baking industry has received in recent times has been principally due to two things:

1. The inventions in baking machinery which make possible the production of high quality bread and pastry at a price lower than most housewives can afford to bake them.
2. The increase in the business and political activities of the modern woman which makes it difficult to devote to cooking the large amount of time which baking requires.

If you are a good cook, have some business ability and a little money, you can start in the bakery business with the assurance that there will be a steady demand for your products. If you begin now you will be able to reap a rich harvest from the Christmas trade.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, JOURNALIST!

Charlie Chaplin
Writes Newspaper
Tale; Gets $150,000

LOS ANGELES, November 24.—Charlie Chaplin has turned journalist and at a salary to make the newswriters of the world grow emerald with envy.

The film comedian who recently returned from Europe, it is announced here, has written an account of his adventures, the persons he met, and his observations—and for his efforts he has received $150,000.

The Chaplin story has been purchased by one of the largest feature syndicates at what is said to be one of the highest prices ever paid. It is said to start with the day when he received a sudden impulse to knock off work in the middle of a picture, laid off his force, and started for Europe. Through various capitals and into widely contrasted scenes the account goes, for Chaplin on his trip visited the slums of London and was received by royalty. The syndicate's one provision was, according to the comedian, that he write every word of the yarn.

Oakland Tribune Obtains Greatest Newspaper Feature of Decade—Chaplin's Own Story for Which He Was Paid $150,000

When The Oakland TRIBUNE discovered that the highest price ever paid for a newspaper feature had been paid Charlie Chaplin for his Own Story it immediately investigated the character of the literary effort of the world's foremost comedian. The feature editors of The TRIBUNE were frankly astonished to find that this greatest of the world's clowns had achieved a literary masterpiece—a classic that will endure. It is a human interest document that can be compared with no other, and as a contribution to American wit it ranks with Mark Twain's "Innocents Abroad."

In line with The TRIBUNE'S policy that has made it the greatest feature newspaper of the coast it immediately wired contracting for this feature exclusively in the San Francisco Bay territory—including San Francisco. Thus only readers of The Oakland TRIBUNE will share from day to day the treat of Chaplin's narration.

Thursday's despatches from Los Angeles told of the comedian's new venture in literary fields. This despatch is reproduced on this page. The most eminent of living writers could not command the figure that was paid the fun-maker for these articles.

Charlie Chaplin, the Author

Literary Methods Adopted by Him in Writing His Story Described

HOW Charlie Chaplin writes the articles about his European trip that are about to be published in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE will be of interest to many who never have realized that Charlie could write.

No, he does not sit down in his room with his portable typewriter, and tap off with his own fingers the witty stories of his life. He dictates the articles throughout. His stenographer is at his elbow during every minute of leisure from activities forced on the screen star by his admirers. During his trip from New York to Chicago he dictated several thousand words, and after his arrival in Chicago he secluded himself in his hotel, with his stenographer. Here he dictated rapidly and with immense zest, walking up and down the room with his quick, light step, laughing heartily at his own jokes, and pausing often like a regular author to find the "inevitable" word.

Following the dictation, the articles were transcribed and read aloud to Charlie, who sat listening to his inspirations with frequent chuckles. He would not permit publication of a line until it suited him perfectly.

A similar process is being followed during the remainder of Chaplin's literary program in Los Angeles. It is said that he has become so delighted with literary work that there is no telling whether this new-found interest will lead him.

The great comedian will bare his life's secret longings, revealing a serious side to a soul that feels keenly for the world's woes. "A work of genius," "a literary masterpiece," "a sensation" are some of the expressions used by critics who have seen the advanced proofs.

It was late in the summer when Chaplin, then hard at work in California, suddenly determined to make this journey abroad. Among other things he was moved by a deep impulse to visit his old home in England. He suspended work on a new film, and, traveling across the continent by fast trains, sailed on his "grand tour"—his first trip abroad for nine years.

Chaplin's own narrative of what followed is filled with rich and contrasting experiences such as come to few men in a lifetime. In a series of glowing pictures he relates episodes which, for combined humor and pathos, deserve, in many instances, a place beside the masterpieces of the screen which have made his name famous.

He tells, among other things, of the shouting thousands who greeted and frightened him on his arrival in London;

Of his success in dodging mobs of frenzied admirers to visit the garret in which he and his mother lived in days of poverty and obscurity;

Of his week-end visit to the home of H. G. Wells, which he considers one of the most gratifying and illuminating experiences of his life;

How Lloyd George and a distinguished gathering waited dinner for him in vain because of an accident;

How he flew across the English channel when an audience with King George and Queen Mary was being arranged, to meet another Mary, she of the screen, and her consort, "Doug," in Paris.

No keener observer of Europe has returned from there recently than this man who is commonly rated as a clown. It has long been known that Chaplin has his serious side: a quality that has cropped out in his film masterpieces more than once. He has told practically nothing about his trip since returning to the United States. This series of articles will present for the first time and in characteristic Chaplin style the story of what he did and saw and thought about "over there."

U. C. Regents Order Probe At Infirmary

With ten days in which to answer the complaint, an investigation into the methods in vogue in the University of California infirmary and administration of that institution, will be instituted by the board of regents as the result of the damage suit filed yesterday by Stanley Davie, a junior student and a nephew of Mayor John L. Davie, it became known today. Davie asks $15,435.

James M. Mannon, attorney for the regents, acting as spokesman for its members, admitted today that there would be a thorough inquiry, as the result of the action, which makes a number of allegations against the methods of conducting the infirmary.

"I have not yet seen the papers in the suit brought by Davie," said Mannon today. "There will undoubtedly be an investigation. I have heard something of his complaint before, but I know nothing whatever of the details. This is the first suit of this kind ever filed and I had not known of any similar complaints against the infirmary. I would want to investigate very thoroughly before making any recommendations with strongest possible credentials."

DOCTOR DENIES FAULT. Mannon was unable to say whether a compromise would be sought out of court with Davie. He explained that the university had ten days in which to make answer to the complaint and that this would be ample for a determination of its merits.

"I am in no way responsible for the condition of Davie," said Dr. Robert T. Legge, head of the university hospital and mentioned as defendant with the board of regents in the complaint. "His operation was highly successful at the infirmary. There appears to be much difference of opinion among other physicians who have attended him on what the cause of his trouble is, but the condition of Davie now is certainly not a result of his operation here."

INJURED IN GAME. "I am very sorry to hear of this student's condition, but everything possible for him was done at the college infirmary." Just previous to filing the complaint Davie's attorneys admitted that his operation at the infirmary was not responsible directly for his having to undergo crutches. Injuries received by the young man in a basketball game some time before, they pointed out, necessitated this. They said that the injury alleged to have been received during the operation made him carry his head in a awkward position as a result of a "broken neck."

Davie resides with his parents at 329 Lester avenue.

SIX-MINUTE FERRY DRAWS REPORT ON PURCHASE OFFER

Data Being Compiled to Show Stockholders How Much Has Been Spent.

Forbes H. Brown, president of the Six-Minute Ferry Company, announced today that work has started on the compilation of the report to be submitted to the stockholders of the company at the meeting in Vallejo on December 11, with regard to the proposed sale of the three boats now under course of construction and the franchise between Oakland and San Francisco.

According to Brown, the offer made to the company through J. J. Tynan of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company comes from a newly formed syndicate of financiers whose identity has not yet been disclosed. It is proposed to take over all of the local holdings for approximately $500,000.

The three vessels being built are to cost on completion about $1,150,000 and the land improvements called for in the lease agreement by the city and now being fought over in the courts, approximately $150,000.

WILL APPEAR IN COURT. The report to the stockholders, now being compiled, will show exactly how much money has been expended so far by the company, according to Brown, and to what extent the new offer will recompense the stock holders. Emphasis is being laid on the fact that the offer refers to the local project alone.

Prior to making the report, however, the company will appear in the superior court against the city of Oakland in the condemnation suit for the property desired by the company on the western waterfront. This suit will be tried in the local courts next Friday.

The case of the Six Minute Ferry has occupied the attention of the City Council since the latter part of 1920 when the company was given a lease on the western waterfront adjacent to the Oakland Mole for a monthly consideration of $50 until certain improvements had been completed at which time the monthly rental became $200.

Last month the company filed a condemnation suit in the superior court for the purpose of acquiring the western waterfront lands on Seventh street and later proposed a compromise with the City Council on the site question. No action was taken on the compromise by the council and a second suggestion was made by the company. Meanwhile a conference was sought with Berkeley city officials in regard to a wharf there.

Scores of Local Leaders to Be Seen in Film of Pageant in Yosemite Valley

"California, the Land of Dreams," the motion picture of the all-day pageant presented by the California Federation of Women's Clubs in Yosemite last May, will be given its first showing in the bay cities tomorrow night under the auspices of Alameda district C. F. W. C. Club women have taken over the municipal opera house for the unique program which will introduce scores of local leaders on the silver screen. The pageant was founded upon Gertrude Atherton's history of California, and was presented with a prologue, five historical episodes representing epochs in the state's past, and an epilogue.

Alameda district women who are sponsoring the entertainment, contributed the cast to the pageant of the now famous pageant, the scenario for their part having been written by Mrs. W. W. Blair, pageant chairman for the district, and curator of the Modern Authors section in Ebell. Among those who assumed leads in the allegorical part were Mrs. Mina McGauley, Mrs. William Nat Friend, Mrs. Beatrice Eisenberg, Mrs. W. W. Robson, Mrs. W. W. Blair, Mrs. W. A. Forester Gets Job He Filled As Substitute Appointment by Governor William D. Stephens of M. B. Pratt, formerly of Berkeley, as state forester means that Pratt has been given the title and salary of a position he has filled for a number of months. As deputy forester he was called upon to assume the full duties of the office when G. M. Homans, a year ago, became ill. Homans died last week in a sanitarium in Los Angeles.

From 1914 to 1918 Pratt was assistant professor in forestry at the University of California, a position which he left to become a deputy state forester. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago and the Yale forestry school. Solon H. Williams of Freila has been named as deputy to succeed Pratt. Williams was active before the last legislature in securing the passage of the bill appropriating $300,000 for the preservation of redwoods.

PARKING SYSTEM IS BAD, ASSERTS STREET RAILWAY

Proposed Amendment to Law May Remedy Trouble, Says Colbourn.

The downtown parking system for automobiles is getting so "miscellaneous" that two street car inspectors were forced to move the hind ends of eleven automobiles sticking into Washington street on Saturday before the cars could pass.

This assertion was made this morning to Commissioner Frank Colbourn by J. P. Potter, superintendent of transportation for the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, who asks relief.

"Diagonal parking is very deceiving to the driver," points out Potter. "The autoist often thinks his car is clear of the street car tracks, but the opposite is often the case."

Colbourn asserts he is waiting for the street department to bring in its proposed amendments to the parking ordinance.

"The old holster-skelter law about parking has to be changed," he says. "On one block diagonal parking is allowed, say, for 30 minutes. On the next block curb parking is demanded on a 40-minute time limit. How can we enforce such laws? Can the motorist be expected to know the special law about every block in the city?"

"There is only one answer. All cars must be parked alongside the curb. This diagonal parking must be cut out. The Washington street law provides for curb parking, but the police are so busy watching all the parking in the city that they cannot always get around to Washington street in time."

Another thing, "We must have a lavish supply of whitewash for ground signs. I notice that autoists do not often see signs above their heads. They watch for line-markers."

Women Will Inspect City Park Sites

The board of park directors at yesterday's meeting decided to give the interested members of women's clubs a tour of the city's proposed park sites Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. When automobiles will gather at the city hall to transport them.

There have been many inquiries from clubwomen. Some have asserted that they favored the entire program as outlined in the park board's questionnaire, and even more. Other clubwomen, however, say they would pick and choose, keeping down the tax rate.

The park board, in response to its request that all trees and shrubbery along the streets be placed under its jurisdiction, received a reply from the city attorney's office that such a transfer would be illegal. The park board, therefore, decided to "cooperate with the street department in every way in planning and maintaining street shrubbery."
